

22.7.2025.

Friday

Skit on Child against child abuse Introduction to CACA

Sarang House conducted a Child Safety Awareness Session for the students to educate students about keeping themselves safe. The session focused on understanding the concept of private parts in a simple and age-appropriate way. Through a short skit children were taught that certain parts of the body are private and should not be touched by anyone except for health or cleanliness reasons, and only by trusted adults like parents or doctors.

