Inter House Rangoli Making Competition Classes III-V

In celebration of the festive season, Air Force School Kalpi has organized an Inter-House Rangoli Making Competition on 18.10.25, Saturday in the school's assembly area. The event aimed to promote the traditional Indian art form of Rangoli, foster a sense of cultural heritage, and encourage creativity and teamwork among the students. The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from all four houses: Tejas, Chetak, Sukhoi, Sarang. The competition was based on the theme of "Traditional Art," and "Festive Spirit".

Participants: Teams from each house, comprising students from grade II - V collaborated to create intricate and beautiful designs. Participants used a variety of eco-friendly and traditional materials, including colored powders, flower petals, and diyas, adding to the visual appeal and cultural authenticity of their creations.

The air was filled with vibrant colors and a spirit of friendly rivalry. The Headmistress of the school Mrs. Pooja Sharma evaluated the entries. After a challenging and close competition, the results were announced, and the winners were felicitated by the Headmistress. The result was declared as First Position: Chetak House, Second Position: Sukhoi House, Third Position: Tejas and Sarang House
