

Air Force School Kalpi
Report on Hawan Ceremony

A Hawan ceremony was solemnly conducted on 1 April at Air Force School, Kalpi (Block B) to mark the auspicious beginning of the new academic session.

The ceremony commenced in the morning with great enthusiasm and spiritual fervor. The sacred ritual was performed by a learned priest, who chanted Vedic mantras and guided the proceedings with devotion. The school premises were filled with a serene and positive atmosphere as the holy fire was lit and offerings were made.

The Principal, teachers, and students actively participated in the Hawan, seeking blessings from the Almighty for a successful and prosperous academic year ahead. The ritual emphasized values such as purity, discipline, and harmony, inspiring everyone present.

The ceremony concluded with the distribution of prasad, leaving the participants with a sense of peace, positivity, and renewed energy for the new session. Overall, the Hawan ceremony was a spiritually enriching experience and set a promising tone for the year ahead.

